

CLOSED DOORS

ACTS 16:6-15

Key Thought:

Four Principles to Help You Take Heart When You Come to a Closed Door

Context: The Apostle Paul, Silas, and Timothy are taking the gospel to new territories on his second missionary journey. Along the journey, Paul encounters one of the strangest experiences in his ministry. It becomes unclear where God is leading them to minister. The way Paul handles this closed door is a powerful help to all of us who need direction when our way forward seems unclear.

1. Closed doors simply do not always make _____.
2. Closed doors give us an opportunity to keep seeking _____.
3. Closed doors remind us there is an _____ door somewhere.
4. Closed doors can often be _____.
